A clear declaration for Imola.
And a profound expression of its history that has been jealously conserved in over 145 years of culture, art and experimentation.
This is a unique heritage and a source of inspiration and continuous passion.

Made with heart.

Una nuova raccolta costituita da singoli volumi, le nostre collezioni, fortemente differenti per natura e per ispirazione, pur preservando una chiara matrice di stampo italiano. Una proposta unica nel suo genere, insita nella sua natura: la bicottura. Una soluzione affascinante, in grado di unire magistralmente smalto, materia, cristallina e colore in una palette cromatica di grande appeal, sempre varia e sempre nuova.

A new range made up of our collections that are extremely different in terms of both nature and inspiration, but maintain the same clearly Italian character. A unique proposal, based on its nature: double-firing. A fascinating solution that masterfully combines glaze, natural material, crystalline finish and colour in a highly appealing chromatic palette that is always changing and always new.
